OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 21 September 1971

25X1 1. [] In the absence of Representative Herman Badillo (D., N. Y.), I talked to his Administrative Assistant Paul Schasberg about the Jack Anderson column of 20 September quoting a former Agency employee regarding sensitive Agency matters. I recalled that in our previous conversation (see Journal of 17 September) Schasberg had indicated that he didn't think Badillo would do anything with this material without consulting us. Schasberg said he had since learned that Badillo had received some material from the ex-Agency employee but "it was not a letter." In response to my further questions, Schasberg said Badillo had discussed this material with Jack Anderson but definitely had not provided it to Anderson. He said Anderson had called Badillo on Friday, 17 September, saying he was "going to write the column" but at that time Badillo's office had not received the material. I said I still wanted to talk to Badillo to explain the sensitivity of the material and Schasberg said he was sure Badillo would be glad to meet me, but his immediate schedule is quite disorganized.

25X1 2. [] Arranged with James Woolsey, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, for Messrs. Carl Duckett and Bruce Clarke to meet with him and Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, for a Soviet strategic weapons briefing at 11:00 a.m. tomorrow in room S-146 in the Capitol.

25X1 3. [] Met with Russ Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and briefed him on Soviet fighter aircraft and ABM testing, tank production, and Y-class submarine construction.

25X1 4. [] Delivered two China Map Folios to the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd (D., W. Va.). Ronald A. Chapman, Assistant Librarian at Glenville State College, Glenville, West Virginia, had written to Senator Byrd requesting the folios for the college library.

25X1 5. [] Delivered to the offices of Senators Edward Kennedy (D., Mass.), Vance Hartke (D., Ind.), Birch Bayh (D., Ind.), George McGovern (D., S. Dak.), Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.) and Adlai Stevenson (D, Ill.) FBIS items in which their names were mentioned.

6. [] The Employee Benefits Subcommittee of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, chaired by Representative James M. Hanley, continued the mark-up session today of the Committee print of a bill to protect civilian employees of the Executive Branch in the enjoyment of their constitutional rights, to prevent unwarranted Governmental invasion of their privacy and for other purposes. The mark-up was in open session and was attended by Representatives White (D., Texas), Gross (R., Iowa), Hogan (R., Md.), and Hillis (R., Ind.). In keeping with the announcement Chairman Hanley had made at the beginning of the mark-up last week, he presented an amendment to provide for full exemption from the bill for:

- a. The Central Intelligence Agency,
 - b. The National Security Agency,
 - c. The Federal Bureau of Investigation, and
 - d. Such other executive agencies or parts thereof
- as the President in the interest of national security may recommend to the Congress.

The motion was approved by the members present. Further discussion of the bill and possible further amendments will be made during the next mark-up session. At that time it is anticipated that a final vote will be taken by the Subcommittee on the bill.

10. [redacted] Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, called. She said she was aware that Messrs. Duckett and Bruce Clarke would be briefing Ed Braswell and Jim Woolsey, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, tomorrow morning and asked if these men could come by and brief Richard Perle, of the Subcommittee staff, and herself on the same subject after the earlier meeting. Since it was obvious that either Braswell or Woolsey had informed her of the briefing, I suggested we simplify matters and conserve the time of our briefers by briefing all four of the staff members at one time. This was agreed to by all parties.
